IP Intensive: From Tariffs to Bouncy Castles - A Semester at SOCAN

January 11, 2017 by Jordan Fine

As part of IP Osgoode's Intellectual Property Law and Technology Intensive Program, students are asked to reflect, then write on their placement experience. All I could think was how perfect my placement at the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers (SOCAN) was, as a musician and SOCAN member, and law student fascinated by infringement.

IP Intensive: Going the Distance (In Education) - Expanding my Legal Skills through a Semester at TVO

January 10, 2017 by Dan Cook

I must confess, I never thought having a background in children's theatre performance would ever factor into my law school education. Although it was a lifetime ago that I was holding court before gymnasiums full of children; animating children's books from the curriculum through songs, puppetry, and interactive storytelling, that experience proved a perfect platform to draw upon throughout my incredibly rewarding IP intensive placement at TVO, Ontario's distance education provider and award winning educational broadcaster.

IP Intensive: A Semester at ISED - An Unforgettable Experience

January 10, 2017 by Imelda Lo

As part of Osgoode's Intellectual Property \(IP\) Intensive Program, I was placed at Innovation, Science, and Economic Development Canada (ISED) for 10 weeks. As the department of the Government of Canada charged with a mandate to foster a growing, competitive knowledge-based Canadian economy, ISED attempts to increase Canada's share of global trade and enhance innovation performance towards a fair, efficient and competitive marketplace.
